

CIRSE GUIDELINES FOR MEDIA PARTNERS AND PUBLISHERS ON FILMING AT THE CIRSE ANNUAL MEETING

INFORMATION

Please read the following rules carefully when planning to request permission to film during CIRSE:

- Media partners and publishers wishing to film at CIRSE need to complete the application form.
- A fee of € 1,000 is associated with each application. This fee encapsulates the following:
 - General administration charges associated with processing the filming request.
 - Four filming passes intended for members of the film crew (excluding medical professionals).
 - All members of the film crew must be registered with CIRSE prior to the event.
- Following the request, accredited film crews will receive permission from CIRSE to film in dedicated areas. Filming outside of the dedicated area is subject to approval by CIRSE.
- Filming inside lecture rooms is prohibited under all circumstances.
- Details about filming arrangements should ideally be disclosed to CIRSE prior to the event.
- Video content filmed at CIRSE must reference the event and society.
